

JOB POSTING TEMPLATE

Date: January 2022 Function: Actuarial and Strategy

Job title: Intermediate Analyst, Pricing Manager title: Senior Manager, Pricing

Job purpose

- Support the technical pricing of new and revamped products to facilitate the execution of the company's product strategy
- Work with different internal stakeholders including but not limited to Valuation team, Product Management team, and distribution channels in the design and development of products
- Perform product-related systems UAT and for the new proposal system.
- Complete regulatory filings and reports as required in a timely manner.
- Assist in ad-hoc requests from other departments.

Major accountabilities

Technical pricing of products	50%
Product-related systems UAT	30%
Preparation of regulatory filing for new products	10%
Other ad hoc tasks as required	10%

Specialized knowledge

- Knowledge of different product types in life insurance
- Knowledge in technical pricing and its financial impact to the company
- Understanding of inherent risks in different products
- Excellent modelling skills and good command in MS Office and actuarial software
- Excellent analytical skills
- Good presentation and communication skills

Problem solving

- Excellent communication skills in both Oral and Written English and Vietnamese
- Detail-oriented
- Team player
- Excellent time management
- Multi-tasking

Education and experience

- University graduate
- Minimum 2 years of actuarial experience, pricing experience preferred
- Minimum 2 actuarial exam passed